Re Joly Says She Didn't Know Kyiv Embassy Staff Faced Russian Threat (Aug. 4): Did the Foreign Affairs Minister ask anyone?

John Moore Toronto

I accept Mélanie Joly's explanation that she and her department were ignorant of the situation in the Kyiv embassy. I do not find it comforting.

That and her statement – after Kabul and now Kyiv – that “I know there have been conversations” tells me she is breathtakingly late to start paying attention. She should resign.
