

Third Workshop

May 16th–17th, 2016

Department of Philosophy, University of Alberta
Edmonton, Canada

Monday — May 16th, 2016

- 8:30–8:55 morning coffee
- 8:55–9:00 Introduction
- 9:00–10:00 KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Dunn, J. Michael: The third place is the charm: Ternary accessibility relations
- 10:00–10:30 coffee break
- 10:30–11:30 Mares, Edwin: Revisiting entailment
- 11:30–12:30 Ferenz, Nicholas: Ambiguity and the semantics of relevant logic
- 12:30–13:30 lunch
- 13:30–14:30 Fine, Kit: A ternary relation semantics for counterfactuals
- 14:30–15:30 Avron, Arnon: The basic relevance criterion
- 15:30–15:50 coffee break
- 15:50–16:50 Tedder, Andrew: Quantifier elimination for some non-classical mathematical theories
- 16:50–17:50 Bimbo, Katalin: Multisets and a ternary relation

Tuesday — May 17th, 2016

- 8:30–9:00 morning coffee
- 9:00–10:00 Hartonas, Takis: Generalized image operators and relational semantics for non-distributive propositional logics
- 10:00–10:20 coffee break
- 10:20–11:10 Badia, Guillermo: Model definability in relevant logic
- 11:10–12:10 Brady, Ross T.: Some concerns regarding ternary-relation semantics and truth-theoretic semantics in general
- 12:30–13:30 lunch
- 13:50–14:50 Urquhart, Alasdair: The geometry of relevant implication
- 14:50–15:10 coffee break
- 15:10–16:10 Brown, Bryson: Crossing streams: Preservationist alternatives to multi-valued and relational semantics
- 16:10– Concluding discussion

The workshop is part of a research project funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) under the Insight Grant “The third place is the charm: The emergence, the development and the future of the ternary relational semantics for relevance and some other non-classical logics.”
