DENIS O. LAMOUREUX

UNICITY OF SKILL SET

I am not aware of any other Science & Religion scholar whose entire graduate school education has focussed on the modern origins controversy, and who holds both a PhD in Evangelical Theology and a PhD in Evolutionary Biology. My 500-page Evolutionary Creation (2008) is one of the first extensive treatments of an evangelical Christian approach to evolution. I have debated leading anti-evolutionists, including “intelligent design theorists” Phillip E. Johnson and Michael Behe. My academic career is centred on assisting Christians in coming to terms with biological evolution.
