

whether feeling up or down you're still the best girl in town whether you are near or far you are still a shining star keep your chin up off the ground sing cause your voice has a beautiful sound don't let the tears hold you here the sunrise is just beyond the pier grab your boat and sail in the sea let the ocean breeze float you free
