Immigration: A Component of Rural Development Strategies

- A community economic development strategy
- To address declining populations
- To revitalize and diversify rural communities
- To attract higher skilled workers
- Rural lifestyle can be attractive to newcomers, but attraction, settlement and retention efforts are required
Steinbach, Manitoba

Population = 11,000

• 2008: Steinbach welcomed about 488 immigrants
  – Consistently ranks in the top 4 destination communities in MB.

• Family and religious connections: Mennonites from Russia, Germany, and Paraguay

• Recent influx of Filipino immigrants (83)

• Community has successfully addressed many issues related to housing and settlement

- Second largest community in Manitoba
- Retail and service centre for surrounding rural and agricultural communities
- Historically, low number of immigrants to the community
Maple Leaf Foods @ Brandon, Manitoba

- 1999 Maple Leaf Foods (MLF) pork processing plant opened
- 2001 MLF conducted first foreign recruitment campaign in Mexico
- There are now approximately 940 international recruits employed at MLF
  - 60% of employees are international recruits
  - From Mexico, El Salvador, Ukraine, China, Colombia, and Mauritius
- 2007 Brandon had highest rate of immigration growth in the province
Brandon Temporary Foreign Worker Dialogue Group

- 2007: First meeting
- Forum for community, community-serving organizations, industry, governments, and researchers
- Began as dialogue around temporary foreign workers
- Transitioned to dialogue on welcoming communities

Tolerance

- Agree that immigrants or ethnic groups living here should have as much say about the future of Canada as people who were born and raised here:
  - 74% of Canadian long term residents
  - 93% of Latin American new residents
  - 93% of Chinese new residents

- Agree that it is a bad idea for people of different ethnicities to marry one another:
  - 6% of Canadian long-term residents
  - 6% of Latin American new residents
  - 4% of Chinese new residents
Multiculturalism

• Agree that people of different ethnic and cultural origins should keep their culture to themselves:
  – 7% of Canadian long-term residents
  – 18% of Latin American new residents
  – 87% of Chinese new residents

• Agree that people who come to Brandon should change their behaviour to be more like the majority of Brandon residents:
  – 9% of Canadian long-term residents
  – 30% of Latin American new residents
  – 49% of Chinese new residents

• Agree that we should do more to learn about the customs and heritage of different ethnic and cultural groups in this country:
  – 88% of Canadian long-term residents
  – 90% of Latin American new residents
  – 93% of Chinese new residents
Brandon is...

  – 71% of Chinese new residents agree

• A good place to raise a family:
  – 97% of Canadian long-term and Latin American residents agree
  – 43% of Chinese new residents agree
Current RDI research

Welcoming communities

- Regional approach to WC in rural communities
  - Indicators of WC
  - WISR model
  - Housing strategies
  - Hiring TFW

- Research and policy implications
A welcoming community attracts and retains newcomers

- identify & remove barriers
- promote a sense of belonging
- meet diverse individual needs
- offer services that promote successful integration

Esses et. al, 2009, p. 9
What is a Welcoming Community?

1. Employment opportunities
2. Fostering of social capital
3. Affordable housing
4. Positive attitudes newcomers
5. Service agencies meeting needs
6. Main actors working toward welcoming communities
7. Sensitive municipal services sensitive
8. Educational opportunities
9. Accessible & suitable health care
10. Available & accessible public transit
11. Presence of diverse religious organizations
12. Social engagement opportunities
13. Political participation opportunities
14. Positive relationships with police & justice system
15. Safe & crime prevention
16. Public space & recreation
17. Favourable media coverage & representation
A Welcoming community strives to improve capacity to inviting, settling, and retaining new residents

- Invite - attract and recruit immigrants to the community
- Settle – identify & remove barriers, and meet diverse individual needs, including sensitivity to and acceptance of cultural diversity
- Retain – integrate new residents into fabric of community and community celebrates cultural diversity of new residents

Esses indicators: 4. positive attitudes toward immigrants, cultural diversity & presence of newcomers in the community, 5. Newcomer-serving agencies meeting needs, 6. Links between main actors working toward welcoming communities, 7. Sensitive municipal services
Does the WISR model add value?

- Model is a simple construct for a complex process, and reflects Esses et al. research findings

What does not seem to work?

- Invite not as explicit as the more common terms of “attract” and “recruit”.
WC – Housing needs vary

New Immigrant

- Invite – different housing available, affordable, suitable
- Settle – Housing choices – starter, fix-it-up, to mid and upper range, location
- Retain – Housing choices for family, location

Imigrants require affordable, but not necessarily low income housing
Elements of housing strategies

- Settlement system
- Housing inventory
- Land supply
- Housing industry
- Market trends
- Regional market
WC – Housing strategies

Actors:

- Federal government
- Provincial government
- Local municipalities
- Private sector
- Community organizations
- Individuals
Larger centres
Greater demand → build new units

Smaller centres
Limited demand → modify existing stocks
Pathway for SME rural employers when hiring TFWs

Step 1: Confirm Labour Shortage: Recruit Canadian Citizens

Step 2: Register your MB Business

Step 3: Recruit TFW

Step 4: Apply for a Labour Market Opinion-LMO

Step 5: TFW Applies for a Temporary Work Permit and Visa (if applicable)

Step 6: TWF Enters Canada

Step 7: Welcome and Settle Employees
At lot of them [TFW’s] haven’t lived in cold climates, economic standards are different.

It’s a big process for a small business.

It’s about a 2-year process now before you get all the paperwork in.

Through the LMOs [Labour Market Opinion] there’s no leeway it’s like simon says – one wrong move and you’re out...that’s the thing we dislike most is the fact that once it’s rejected you have to start all over again.

Rural living isn’t for everyone and sometimes that’s the hardest thing.

Our history with these people [TFWs] is that they are committed to the job.

It’s in our best interest [employer] to make sure that they’re well settled & happy so we certainly endeavour to do that.

There is a huge cost to recruitment, so it is better to retain the TFW’s, settle them & have them contribute to the community.
Hiring TFW

Gov’t agencies review Information Pathway for rural employers

- Sharing the Information Pathway
  - Govt agencies
  - Business groups
  - Employers

- Keeping it current (evergreen)
Policy implications

- Better integrated immigration processes (for TFW) among gov’t agencies
- Connect rural employment opportunities with available urban immigrants (provincially, nationally)
Further research of WISR model

- What strategies and engagement activities rural communities invite, settle, and retain immigrants and new residents? Which ones are working?
- What sequence of strategies and activities are used by immigrants as they become long term residents in rural communities?
Policy implications

• How best to adjust public services in response to an uneven distribution of immigrants in rural regions?

• To what extent will rural immigration contribute to rural communities (economically, socially, culturally, politically, environmentally) and what is at risk if they do not?
