Brown Bag Lunch Seminar Series

Laurel Boresenko

PhD Candidate – University of Amsterdam

“Moving from conflict to healing and resilience, and the role of artistic expression: Case studies from Zimbabwe, northern Uganda, and Kenya”

Laurel has spent the last year working with UNHCR in Kenya, and conducting research part time. She will share results from her research visits to these conflict/post conflict areas, where she watched plays and interviewed artists, survivors of violence, NGO workers, and UN officials. She will welcome any thoughts or questions that will inspire the further development of her research.
